

Buckholts ISD Non-Discrimination Policy

The Buckholts Independent School District shall provide equal opportunities within its jurisdiction and will not discriminate against students' opportunities to participate in all activities or programs regardless of disability, race, sex, color, religion, national origin, marital status, or any other legally protected status.